ARIZONA STATE COURTS

Judges of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, and of the Superior Court in Maricopa, Pima, Coconino, and Pinal counties are appointed to office by the governor upon recommendation of a bipartisan commission. The term of office of a Supreme or an Appellate Court judge is six years and of a Superior Court judge four years. At the expiration of their terms, appointed judges wishing to remain in office have their names placed upon the ballot. The electorate then votes to retain or reject them

CAN I REGISTER TO VOTE IN PIMA COUNTY?

Yes, you must be a US citizen, live in Pima County, and be 18 or older by the day the next statewide regular General Election.

WHEN IS THE LAST DAY THAT I CAN REGISTER BEFORE AN ELECTION?

You must register 29 days before an election in which you plan to vote.

YOU CANNOT REGISTER TO VOTE IN ARIZONA IF:

You have been convicted of a felony and have not yet had your civil rights restored. For a first time felony, civil rights are automatically restored upon completion of a person's sentence and payment of any restitution. For assistance, call the Pima County Defender's Office at 520-724-6800.

You cannot vote if you have been adjudicated mentally incapacitated by a court of law and your voting rights were not preserved.

THE VERY FIRST TIME YOU REGISTER IN ARIZONA, YOU NEED PROOF OF US CITIZENSHIP.HOW DO I PROVE I'M A US CITIZEN?

Use only one of the following documents:

- Arizona Driver License or Non-Operating License issued after October 1, 1996
- Legible copy of your birth certificate that verifies citizenship or
- Legible copy of the main page of your passport
- U.S. Naturalization Certificate is issued by the U.S. Citizen and Immigration Services or one of the following documents' numbers: Alien Registration, Naturalization Certificate, Citizenship Certificate, Indian Census or Tribal Enrollment.

HOW DO I UPDATE MY VOTER REGISTRATION?

You can update your voter registration in person, when you apply for your Arizona driver's license.

If you have an Arizona Driver's License, Non-Operating License, you can go online at servicearizona.com to update your voter registration.

Voter registration forms can be found at public libraries, post offices and online at the Pima County Recorder's Office (recorder.pima.gov). You can update your voter registration by filling out the form and mailing it to:

Pima County Recorder's Office, PO Box 3145, Tucson, AZ 85702.

WHAT ELSE DO I NEED TO KNOW?

If you are a college student from out of state, you should check with your academic advisor first to ensure that claiming residency in Arizona will not disrupt your scholarships, grants or tuition. You can register to vote at the address you consider your place of residence. This can be at your family's home or the place where you attend school. You can only be registered to vote in one location.

To vote in State and local elections, you must provide proof of US citizenship. If you don't have proof of citizenship but you are still a US citizen, you can only vote in federal elections for US President, US Senate and House of Representatives.

WHAT ABOUT POLITICAL PARTIES AND PRIMARY ELECTIONS?

When filling out your registration form, you are asked to declare your Party Preference. Your choice will affect voting in Primary Elections.

As a registered member of the Democrat, Republican, Libertarian or other state approved party, you can vote your party's ballot in the Primary elections. If you leave "Party Preference" blank, you will be registered as "Party Not Designated". Voters registered as Independent or Party Not Designated can still vote in a Primary by requesting either a Republican or Democrat ballot from the Recorder's Office.

WHAT IS A PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE ELECTION?

A Presidential Preference Election is a political party's Primary for US President. To vote in that election, you must be registered in one of the recognized political parties in advance of the election.

HOW DO I VOTE EARLY BY MAIL?

You can early vote by adding yourself to the Active Early Voting List (AEVL) - instructions in the next section.

When enrolled in AEVL, you will automatically receive an Early Voting Ballot for every election for which you are eligible. If you are out of town for an election, call the Recorder's Office (520 724-4330) and ask for your ballot to be mailed elsewhere.

HOW DO I JOIN THE AEVL LIST?

You can print the form from the Recorder's Office website and mail it back to them: Pima County Recorder's Office, PO Box 3145, Tucson AZ 85702. You can also write a handwritten note asking to be added to AEVL with your full name, date of birth and signature and mail it to the address above. Finally, you can also update your registration by using ServiceArizona.com and choose the option to receive your ballot by mail automatically for every election. You can mail your early ballot or take it to an Early Voting Site (locations are on the Pima County Elections website) or take it to any Vote Center on Election day.

HOW DO I VOTE IN PERSON ON ELECTION DAY?

In order to vote a regular ballot in person, your name and address must be on the voter roster, and match one of the following types of identifications listed below:

1 - PHOTOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

- An Arizona driver's license
- An identification card issued by the Arizona Motor Vehicle Division
- A tribal enrollment card
- Other forms of tribal identification
- Other identification issued by the federal, state or local government

To find forms, check your voter registration, find out where to vote, or get other answers, call your County Recorder's Office or go to their website. In Pima County, call 520-724-4330 or go to recorder.pima.gov.

For information about elections and election procedures, call your County Elections Department or go to their website.

In Pima County, call 520-724-6830 or search "Pima County Elections Department" to find the website.

For information about candidates and ballot issues, check with the League of Women Voters of Greater Tucson, www.lwvtucson.org, or the Arizona Clean Elections Commission, www.azcleanelections.gov.

#2 - NON-PHOTOGRAPHIC IDENTIFICATION WITH 2 TYPES OF ID

Each piece of identification must contain your name and your address and this information must reasonably match the information in the voter roster. Your name and address on the license should match the voter's record, if not you will be asked to update your registration at an early voting site and they will issue a provisional ballot. Any ID that doesn't have a voter's address on it should be supplemented with something that does.

The following documents are acceptable:

- A utility bill
- A bank or credit union statement (if dated within 90 days)
- A valid Arizona vehicle registration
- An Indian census card
- A tribal enrollment card
- Other forms of tribal identification
- A property tax statement
- An Arizona vehicle insurance card
- A Recorder's certificate
- A voter registration card
- A valid federal, state or local government issued identification card
- Any mail addressed to you that includes the "Official Election Material" logo

Taking Action - Your Voice Can Be Heard

Elected officials want to hear from their constituents, and you can communicate in a variety of ways. The Legislature's website (www.azleg.gov) provides each legislator's contact information, committee assignments and other useful information.

- You can meet elected officials in person by attending government meetings, town halls, hearings and public events. You may also request an appointment.
- By phone: Use the official phone number listed for their office.
- By mail or email: On the subject line, identify the name or number of the bill, and your position: in favor or opposed. Put comments/reasons in the content of the letter. Be brief.
- To record your approval or disapproval (and to comment) on any bill scheduled for committee consideration as part of the public record, register in advance with the Legislature's Request To Speak (RTS) System, which is accessible at www.azleg.gov. For information on registering for your free RTS account contact Cynthia Patchen, cpatchen@azleg.gov, or at 520-398-6000. You will need to go in person to the Arizona State Office building at 416 W. Congress St., downtown Tucson. Call the number above before you visit to confirm office hours.

The League of Women Voters, established in 1920, promotes informed citizen participation in government at all levels. The League accomplishes this goal by:

- maintaining a nonpartisan policy, neither supporting nor opposing any candidate or political party;
- informing voters through open and balanced forums, educational programs, and written materials;
- encouraging citizens to use their vote;
- advocating for voters rights; and
- studying and advocating for selected public issues.
- being an all-volunteer organization.

Membership in the League of Women Voters is open to anyone - male or female - age 16 and older. For more information about joining the League, go to www.lwvtucson.org or call 520.327.7652.
